Diversity & Inclusion

ANTIRACISM, HEALTH EQUITY, AND A POST-COVID FUTURE

ETHICS

A webcast from the American Medical Association

Talk

In this video edition of Ethics Talk, journal editor in chief of the AMA Journal of Ethics, Dr. Audiey Kao, talks with Dr. Ibram Kendi, Director, Center for Anti-racist Research and Policy Center, about the impact of racist policies on historically-discriminated-against groups and what it means to be an anti-racist.

At the conclusion of this online enduring activity, participants will be able to:

1. Identify key ethical values or principles at stake related to racism in healthcare.
2. Contextualize racism vs. anti-racism as defined by Dr. Kendi and apply to healthcare.
